Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The primary reason for the allowance of the claims is the inclusion of the limitation, a liquid level gauge measuring the amount of liquid in the tank located adjacent to but laterally spaced from said fill opening and in juxtaposition to one side of the tank, said encircling wall initially forming most of a circle but then having a radially, laterally extended extension in which area said liquid level gauge is located at least in part, while said opening is located in the area defined by the circle part of said encircling wall, in all the claims which is not found in the prior art references of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
